It is VERY WHITE, extremely reflective and hardens on a wall like stone.

It will last for years, and is unaffected by gases.

One coat covers better than two coats of oil paint or whitewash.

It can be used on any surface and for all classes of work, even for the finest decorating.

It will not rub, scale or crack, nor will it soften with age or discolor.

It will not set in the mixing vessel, in fact it improves by standing a few days.

It can be used to good advantage over old whitewash without scraping. IT DRIES OUT WHITE AFTER BEING WET.

It is cheaper than whitewash, durability considered.

TWENTY-NINTH DAY.

Junius Kaee is Arraigned for Misprision of Treason.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Judge Advocate Roberts on addressed the Commission only a few minutes.

Junius Kaee was then brought in for trial for misprision of treason.

P. Neumann appeared for the accused and entered the usual objection to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The Court then adjourned for the day.

THIRTIETH DAY.

Trial of Junius Kaee for Previous Guilty Knowledge

Court convened at 9:30 o'clock.

Robert Hakulo Silver, sworn, states: Was at Junius Kaee's house on Jan. 2 and was told to come there on the following day to assist in the cleaning of guns; Lot Lane, Willie, John and Jim Lane and the accused were present during the conversation; Lot Lane said the guns were to be there on Thursday night; Robert Wilcox came there during the evening with Lot Lane; Wilcox came a second time after 9 o'clock and told Lot Lane to pick out six men to go out from Bertelmann's place to meet a steamer and bring in the arms on a boat; we were to look after the guns on the boat and the arms were to be landed at Kakaako; the conversation took place in the bedroom of the accused; Lot, John and myself off together, and Wilcox, Jim and William came after; we got as far as Thomas Square when Jim Lane came after us and told us to return, as the thing was known; we came back to the Catholic Cemetery and met Wilcox who told me to go with him to Bertelmann's; I went out to that place and we went out in a canoe, met the steamer Waimanalo and had guns taken to Kahala; when guns were landed we went to Bertelmann's and later to Manoa to Kaee's place; Kaee was not there that day; the Lane boys, Charles Bartow and Keliuwa were there; saw Kaee next day, Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, at the same place; we were all there that evening; Jesse (Mrs. Kaee) and I went for a bottle of brandy; we went to John Ena's place and Jessie mortgaged Lot Lane's horse to her sister (Mrs. Ena); the money was to be used in securing men to go to the war; Lot said the horse would not be used as we were going to war, and if killed the horse would be no use to them; we drank the bottle of brandy; toasts were made to the health of the Queen and the success of the rebellion; Lot Lane and myself left the house together; we got $30 in gold for the horse; I got $10 of the amount; I spent some of my money in paying the tramcar fare of some of the men that went out there; don't know whether Lot Lane spent any money; the money was given me in Kaee's bedroom; went out to Kaalawai at 9:30 p. m. Saturday; assisted in cleaning guns and took part in the fight with the permanent troops; on Sunday morning men began coming in and this prevailed all day; pickets were put out and foreign prisoners were brought in.

Cross-examination—Lot Lane told me to come to Kaee's place on Thursday and Saturday; he told me that on Wednesday; he said that if the guns did not come on Thursday to come there on Saturday; I secured twelve men and gave them money for their fares; I changed the ten-dollar gold piece at a store below the Empire Saloon; gave Sam Kaloa sixty cents and another the same amount; left Kaee's house at 7 o'clock on the Saturday night and went out to Kaalawai at 9 o'clock; was a witness in the case of Tom Poole; was questioned by W. A. Kinney on Monday last in regard to what he knew about Kaee; told him what I have already stated before this Commission; was told that I would be taken as a witness; was arrested on Jan. 18, at my home at Aylett's, Fort street; was served with papers charging me with treason; no promises or threats were made to me if I became a witness.

Recess was taken at noon until 1:30 o'clock.
